SUPPLIER CODE of CONDUCT

Our code of conduct outlines the principles by which Leiths (Scotland) Ltd Group seek to operate our business.

The Leiths Group is committed to operating its business in compliance with applicable laws and regulations and to developing appropriate chains of responsibility within our sphere of influence.

The Supplier Code of Conduct sets out the minimum standards we expect of ourselves and those who work with us. The code cannot cover every scenario and we expect everyone to use common sense and good judgement in its application.

We have made a commitment to work only with those whose standards are consistent with ours.

The Code Applies to:

Leiths Group: We have our own internal policies which set and drive the standards of behaviour within our organisation with which our colleagues are expected to comply.

Our suppliers: Suppliers are the collective name we give to our suppliers, sub-contractors, business partners, service providers, professional services providers, consultants, intermediaries and agents, all of whom we expect to comply with the code.

Our suppliers' supply chain: You must ensure that the practices and principles outlined in the code flow down throughout your supply chain, irrespective of conflicting local business practices and customs.
